Marlborough, MA – June 29, 2009 – Alpha NetSolutions, a full-service IT provider with offices in Massachusetts and Connecticut, announced today that they have formed a strategic partnership with Altico Advisors, a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner headquartered in Massachusetts.

“The strength of this partnership,” explains Mike Kean, President of Altico Advisors, “lies in the synergy between our two companies. Altico implements Microsoft Dynamics GP, CRM and SharePoint solutions for our clients, including financial, business, customer relationship and document management systems. Many of our clients also require the kinds of managed services provided by Alpha NetSolutions, such as robust network monitoring, remote desktop support, disaster recovery and back-up planning, and security design, to name a few. Together we can deliver a seamless solution to our clients.”

According to Tim Shea, CEO of Alpha NetSolutions, “Altico’s clients run their businesses on the world-class Microsoft Dynamics platform.
